

FOXY AGUINALDO.

Was Not at Tarlac When Colonel Bell's Troops Bushed In.

HIS SECRETARY CAPTURED.

Insurgents Mortally Afraid of Americans—Moral Effect of the News That 8,000 Troops Were En Route, Disease Playing Havoc With the Rebels.

MANILA, Nov. 13, 8:46 a. m.—General Young is supposed to have reached San Nicolas, about thirty miles east of Dagupan, but his wagons are far behind. Colonel Hayes has captured Aguinaldo's secretary and Major Coleman is in Carrangian, with an escort of 175 Bolomen on his way to the province of Nueva Vizcaya.

The son of General Llaneras and his family are prisoners. The general barely escaped. The correspondent of the Associated Press with General Young, telegraphs from San Jose that Aguinaldo did not escape to the north-east. He and his army, the correspondent adds, are surrounded. His last orders to the Filipino commander at San Jose were to hold San Jose and Carrangian at all costs. The recent encounters were too one-sided to be called fights. The insurgents are mortally afraid of the Americans, however strong their position. They make but a brief and feeble resistance and run when the terrible American yell reaches their ears, whereupon the Americans pursue them and slay them. The moral effect of the news that 8,000 troops are on their way here has been unquestionably great. The insurgents are undoubtedly suffering more from disease than the Americans, owing to poor foods, lack of medicines and filthy hospitals, with the result that there is great mortality among them. General Lawton has intercepted a telegram from an insurgent captain to a Filipino general, reading: "How can you blame me for retreating when only twelve of my company were able to fight?"

Taking of Tarlac.

MANILA, Nov. 10, 10 a. m.—When Col. Bell left Capas, ten miles from Tarlac, at 1 o'clock yesterday, he intended merely to reconnoitre. He had with him the Thirty-sixth Infantry, Slaven's scouts, troop E, of the fourth cavalry; a battalion of the Twenty-second regiment and galling guns. The scouts, mounted, preceded the main body up the railroad. They met a hundred rebels at Murcia, but the insurgents quickly retreated. The scouts found the depot burning, but extinguished the fire and saved the building.

The main column marched up the wagon road, but before reaching Tarlac divided, entering the town on two sides at 8 o'clock without a shot being fired. The insurgents had evacuated the place only a few hours before, setting fire to the railway station and the rolling stock. They left a rear guard of four hundred men who, however, failed to make a stand and cover the retreat of the main force of insurgents, as they had probably been ordered to do. The rebel ordinance is reported to have been shipped to the town of Odont. The Americans are continuing their advance so rapidly that the insurgents have not the time necessary to destroy the railway.

Transport Movements.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 13.—The government transport Garonne with cargo of 387 army mules for use in the Philippines, has sailed for Manila. The transport Victoria has arrived from Manila, which port she left October 14. The Victoria took a cargo of 413 cavalry horses from Tacoma and eight cavalry men from this city. She landed 402 of the animals safely in Manila. The Victoria brought four civilian passengers from the Philippines and had a rough voyage.

Appointed Consul.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—The President has appointed Jesse H. Johnson, of Texas, to be consul of the United States at Coaticook, Quebec, Canada.

Copper Colored Splotches.

There is only one cure for Contagious Blood Poison—the disease which has completely baffled the doctors. They are totally unable to cure it, and direct their efforts toward bottling the poison up in the blood and concealing it from view. S. S. S. cures the disease positively and permanently by forcing out every trace of the taint.

I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These splotches broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do no good, I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I had tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass. H. L. MYERS, 120 Mulberry St., Newark, N. J.

Don't destroy all possible chance of a cure by taking the doctor's treatment of mercury and potash. These minerals cause the hair to fall out, and will wreck the entire system.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 72,942]

"You have saved my life, snatched me from the brink of the grave almost, and I wish to thank you. About eighteen months ago I was a total wreck, physically. I had been troubled with leucorrhoea for some time, but had given hardly any attention to the trouble."

"At last inflammation of the womb and ovaries resulted and then I suffered agonies, had to give up my profession (musicalian and piano player), was confined to my bed and life became a terrible cross. My husband summoned the best physicians, but their benefit was but temporary at best. I believe I should have contracted the morphia habit under their care, if my common sense had not intervened."

"One day my husband noticed the advertisement of your remedies and immediately bought me a full trial. Soon the pain in my ovaries was gone. I am now well, strong and robust, walk, ride a wheel, and feel like a girl in her teens. I would not be without Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound; it is like water of life to me. I am very grateful and sincerely your well-wisher, and I heartily recommend your remedies. I hope some poor creature may be helped to health by reading my story."—Mrs. Col. E. P. NEWSPAPER'S GOOD WORK.

Exposure of Election Frauds at Philadelphia—Many Arrests.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 13.—Deputy Coroner Samuel P. Salter, who is involved in the alleged election frauds in the Thirteenth division of the Seventh ward, and for whom a warrant had been issued, surrendered himself to-day. He entered $1,000 bail to appear for a hearing next Thursday. The warrant charges Salter with conspiring with others to procure and cast fraudulent ballots and make false returns at the recent election.

Salter's arrest is the result of hearing last week of five alleged repeaters, who are said to have been brought to this city from Washington, by Lieut. Rogers, of the capitol police, and who are now under bail for trial. At this hearing George Kirkland, one of the defendants who acted as minority inspector on election day, testified that under Salter's direction he assisted in depositing two hundred ballots in the box before the polls opened. He also testified that only 124 legal votes were cast in the division, while the returns showed 339, of which 332 were given to Barnett, the Republican candidate for state treasurer, and only five for his Democratic opponent, Thomas J. Ryan, candidate for city commissioner on the ticket with Cressy, was given 143 votes in the returns for the division.

ALL BOW TO UNCLE SAM.

Germany Forced to Keep on Good Terms With England.

LONDON, Nov. 13.—The afternoon newspapers commenting on Emperor Williams' approaching visit to England and the improved relations between Germany and Great Britain voices the general opinion here, saying "the latter is in a great part due to the vast change in the relations between the United States and Great Britain, which preceded it and from which Germany has drawn the obvious deduction that legitimate colonial and commercial ambitions cannot possibly be fulfilled in the face of the hostility of the two English-speaking peoples."

According to the St. James Gazette, with the establishment of good relations between London and Washington it became necessary for Germany to stand on friendly terms with both. There has been, the paper adds, no unqualified promises of future armed support, but the three countries have decided to live on civil terms for business reasons.

CIVIL GOVERNORS.

President McKinley to Make Appointments Immediately.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—A dispatch to the Herald from Washington says President McKinley will tell Congress of his intentions to appoint civil governors of Cuba and Porto Rico, and may not even wait for congressional action before announcing the appointments. This statement is made on the authority of a member of the committee on foreign relations who has just talked with the President on the subject.

Strong pressure is being brought upon the President for the immediate appointment of these governors. A comprehensive plan for the government of Porto Rico is now being worked into shape by Secretary Root, which will be presented in the form of a bill similar to the one now pending for the government of Hawaii.

Foot Ball at the University.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MORGANTOWN, W. Va., Nov. 13.—At a meeting of the University football team to-day it was decided to finish the season's schedule, the decision being a reconsideration of that reached by the team at a meeting on Saturday. This afternoon forty men were on the athletic field at practice, and the coach and captain are encouraged over the outlook for the rest of the season. The season has been a bad one up to this time. The faculty disqualified several members, and a half dozen others sustained injuries which put them out of the game for the season. Taylor had a leg broken at practice Saturday. The faculty is determined to have pure athletes at the University. It matters not how poor a team the institutions will have as a result, and this position is sustained by a large percentage of the student body.

TO DECIDE BOUNTY MONEY.

Court of Claims to Find the Amount Due Admiral Dewey and His Men. Comparative Strength of the Opposing Forces.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—A special to the Herald from Washington says: On behalf of Admiral Dewey and his officers and men, Washington attorneys have asked the court of claims to find that the amount of bounty money due them is $122,200. The decision of the court will establish a precedent which will affect the amount of bounty to be distributed among the officers and men of the North Atlantic fleet, which destroyed the squadron of Admiral Cervera. If the finding of the court is in accordance with the request, the admiral's share of the bounty will be $39,194.

The attorneys base their case upon the claim that the defeated Spanish force was superior to the American squadron. It is not contended that the enemy's fleet was superior, but that taking into consideration the guns at Corregidor, El Fraile and other forts at the entrance of the bay, and those at Manila and Cavite, which fired upon the American force continuously the enemy's force was superior.

The total number on the Spanish fleet is given at 2,973, but no claim for bounty is made on account of Manila, which was captured comparatively unharmed, or of the Don Juan de Austria, the Isla de Cuba and the Isla de Luzon, which were raised after sinking, and are now in the United States navy. The complement of the three latter vessels is 491, but that number must be doubled to reach the actual number on board, making 982, and to this must be added the complement of the Manila, a total of 1,053. Deducting from the total of 2,037, leaves 1,914 as the number on board the destroyed vessels. The weight of gunfire from the Spaniards was nearly double that of the American forces, the amount of metal thrown in one round by the American ships being 5,800 pounds, against 10,800 pounds by the enemy.

"It must be conceded," the brief states, "that the entrance of the American fleet under Admiral Dewey through a channel mined with torpedoes, and its manoeuvres in the bay, where the unseen dangers threatened every moment required the highest degree of personal gallantry and heroism, are not to be disregarded in construing this statute. It is argued that mines should be counted as a part of the Spaniards' effective force."

"If mines are to be counted as part of the force of the vessels they are aiding," the brief says, "we can conceive of no reasoning that will exclude shore batteries also engaged in aiding and defending in battle."

U. S. Supreme Court Recess.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court, announced to-day that the court would take a recess for a fortnight, beginning next Monday. The supreme court to-day advanced the case of Knowlton vs. Moore to be heard with the case of High vs. Coyne, on December 4 next. Both cases involve the constitutionality of the inheritance tax law. The Knowlton case originated in Brooklyn and the High case in Chicago.

FEEL THE CHANGE.

Hundreds Voluntarily Endorse a Springfield, Ohio, Product.

A Statement by a Well Known Citizen, Who Has Found Great Relief by Using It.

The time has come when people in Wheeling feel the change. Many people in this city have given voluntary endorsement of the great change they have felt after using Morrow's Kid-ne-olds; the people realize the good obtained by their use and give hearty expression of the same.

Kid-ne-olds will cure a lame back, kidney backaches, urinary and kidney disorders, sleeplessness, restlessness and nervousness. We always like to give reference as to the merits of Morrow's Kid-ne-olds, and this time refer you to Mr. William Stein, who lives at No. 453 Market Street. He says: "I was troubled for some time with a severe and very sharp pain across the small of my back just over the kidneys. I became nervous and sleepless; my sleep was so broken that I would not get the rest that I should, and would get up feeling more tired than when I went to bed. I was advised by my friends to try Morrow's Kid-ne-olds, and after securing some at Charles R. Goetze's drug store, and taking them according to directions I was greatly relieved. Mr. Goetze guarantees them to cure or will refund the money."

Morrow's Kid-ne-olds are a great nerve tonic, which acts on the nerves by restoring them to their normal condition without artificial means. We warrant the remedy to all that we claim it used as directed.

To confirm the statement of Mr. Stein we want you to ask him about Morrow's Kid-ne-olds. He is a grateful man, and will be glad to tell you personally how much he was benefited by their use. Do not confound Morrow's Kid-ne-olds with any kind of kidney pills; they are not pills, but Tellow Tablets, which is the most scientific way of preparing medicine, and the purchasers of them should be careful to see that no other remedy is substituted. They are put up in wooden boxes, which sell for 50c at Charles R. Goetze's drug store. Descriptive booklet mailed upon request by John Morrow & Co., Chemists, Springfield, Ohio.

NEW YORK'S HORSE SHOW.

The Great Society Events On in Grand Style Than Ever.

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—The fifteenth annual horse show began in Madison Square Garden to-day. There was a very good attendance at the opening, and this, together with the excellent character of the exhibit, led many to hope that this year's show would be the most successful in some years.

The first two hours of the day were given over to exercising horses. At 11 o'clock the first judging was done, when fifty-one hunters and jumpers of class 99 were inspected. The exercising brought out practically all of the "stars" in the show and in the arena boxes were many representatives of fashionable society, who were on hand to get first glimpses of the horses. Among the entries that attracted favorable attention, were H. C. Hoskier's team, Lord Brilliant and Lieutenant Wright; Richard Croker's Jumah, General Benjamin F. Tracy's Advertiser and Adrone, and a pair of trotters, West and B. C., entered by P. C. Knox, of Pittsburgh.

When the bugle sounded at 9 o'clock, about twenty horses were brought into the ring for exercising. Miss Marion Holloway's Ben Bolt was the first horse out in the ring and Consolation followed. John S. Bratton's Euche, Adam Beck's Lord Banah, George Pepper's Rosebud, Beck's Lady Falconer, and others were the first out.

Frederick Bronson and Colonel Lawrence Kip are the ring committee for the day and William C. Whitney and George Peabody Wetmore for this evening.

PARADES' SURRENDER.

Official Confirmation of the Capture of Puerto Cabello.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 12.—Both the state and navy department have received reports concerning the surrender of Parades at Puerto Cabello, Venezuela, yesterday. The state department dispatch is from Minister Loomis at Caracas and is as follows: "After eight hours' fighting Castro's army took Puerto Cabello this morning. Killed and wounded aggregate three hundred. Surgeons and hospital corps from foreign cruisers attending wounded. Local facilities inadequate. Castro holds every port and place of consequence in Venezuela."

The navy department's report comes from Commander Hemphill, of the Detroit, which is now at Puerto Cabello. It is dated last night at 9:35, and reads as follows: "Severe fighting since Saturday morning. About three hundred killed on both sides. Parades surrendered his final position to Castro's force Sunday morning."

Western Irrigation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 13.—The question of storing flood waters for irrigation purposes which is being generally discussed at this time throughout the west, has brought in so much correspondence to the geological survey that Frederick H. Newell, the hydrographer, has issued a circular, setting forth what has been done in the way of government surveys and the attitude of the government toward the building of storage reservoirs. The circular says that a large number of reservoir sites in western states have been surveyed and revised and that the maps and estimates of cost of construction have been prepared and plans drawn to afford an accurate basis for appropriation for construction. The circular states that the officers of the navy have no concern with the question whether these reservoirs are to be built by private capital or public funds.

Connecticut Murder.

STAMFORD, Conn., Nov. 12.—The inquest into the murder of Mrs. Sarah C. King is in progress to-day. Just before the opening of the proceedings it was learned that Charles Cross, the seventeen-year-old chore boy who is under arrest on suspicion, had made a confession. According to Cross' statement after Mrs. King had retired, he entered her room and undertook to overpower her. She resisted fiercely, whereupon he hurled her to the floor and struck her head against the floor several times. She became unconscious, and he lifted her body to the bed, immediately leaving the house to notify the neighbors that the woman had been murdered.

Prominent Physician Murdered.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 12.—Dr. James M. Morrison, the aged physician who was robbed and beaten by two men at his home on the evening of November 2, died of his injuries to-day. Dr. Morrison served with distinction during the civil war in the Seventh and Twenty-eighth Pennsylvania regiments and joined the regular army as a surgeon at the close of the rebellion.
